(Application)

Article 1. These Rules stipulate the conditions and procedures for admission to the Japan Society of Clinical Oncology, a general incorporated association (hereinafter, the “Association”), in addition to matters with regard to Article 8 of these Articles of Association, as follows.

(Eligibility)

Article 2. Persons eligible for admission to the Association as regular members pursuant to the provision of Article 8 of these Articles of Association shall belong to one of the following categories.

- (1) medical doctors or dentists who possess knowledge and experience with regard to the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer;
- (2) researchers who possess knowledge and expertise in the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer and hold bachelors, masters, or Ph.D. degrees (in Medicine, Science, Pharmacology, or the like);
- (3) persons who possess medical-related qualifications (nurse licenses or the like) and knowledge and experience with regard to the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of cancer.

(Procedures for regular members)

Article 3. A person who wishes to become a regular member of the Association shall carry out admission procedures by registering the required items on the Association’s website, and promptly pay the membership fee for the relevant fiscal year.

2. Upon making an application for admission, regular members shall register one of the specialist departments prescribed in the Detailed Enforcement Regulations No. 11 (Rules on the Establishment or Abolition of Specialist Departments) as a specialist department to which they belong.

(Procedures for supporting members)

Article 4. Persons who desire to become supporting members of the Association shall fill in all required items in the Application for Admission (Form No. 2), execute the application with a signature or seal, and submit the form to the office of the Association with fees for the current fiscal year.

(Amendments to these Rules)

Article 5. These Rules may be amended in accordance with a resolution by the Board of Directors and a meeting of the General Assembly.

Supplementary Provisions

1. These Rules shall be effective as of January 5, 2009.
2. These Rules shall be effective as of October 17, 2018.
