

Webinar series

Spotlights on Improving Efficiency in Cancer Care

The webinars are part of a larger research and educational programme in collaboration with All.Can and SDA Bocconi School of Management.

Held in collaboration with

Changing cancer care together

Sharing Progress in Cancer Care is pleased to invite you to its sixth webinar of the series

Spotlights on Improving Efficiency in Cancer Care

What is efficiency in Japan and Korea?

EXPERT

Inkeun Park

Gachon University Gil Medical Center and All.Can Korea
Incheon, Korea

EXPERT

Kiyotaka Watanabe

Teikyo University Hospital
Tokyo, Japan

DISCUSSANT

Kazuo Tamura

Fukuoka University
Fukuoka, Japan

12 May 2021

13:00 CEST – 20:00 JST

via www.oncocorner.net

SPCC is a non-profit association, based in Switzerland, working in the fields of cancer education, care improvement and innovation, in collaboration between various stakeholders, including industry and academia, in order to raise awareness and disseminate knowledge about innovative approaches, scientific progress as well as state-of-the-art treatments and methodologies in Cancer Care Continuum.

To view the session and obtain a certificate you must register on the OncoCorner website

REGISTER HERE

For further information, please visit www.oncocorner.net

This webinar is made possible thanks to an unrestricted educational grant. Click here for more information

